HUNTINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—HUNTINGTON, INDIANA

EXIT

WE SPEND OUR TIME . . .

We of the staff of the 1958 Modulus wish to dedicate our book to the students who work, play, and live together at Huntington High School. The days of this year have quickly slipped away, but they have left invaluable memories of the many hours which we have spent together. We hope that everyone will find happiness in reliving some of these memorable occasions as he browses through the pages of the Modulus of 1958.

. . . DANCING TO DREAMY STRAINS

Halloween Dance

A weird black and white graveyard greeted the couples who attended the Halloween Dance which was held on October 26, 1957, at the Masonic Temple.

From 9:00 to 12:00 p.m. the dancing skeletons, ghosts, and goblins together with the music of Jimmy Stier's combo created an appropriate atmosphere for the 130 couples who attended.

The dance, under the supervision of Miss Alice Kline and Mr. Lowell Buzzard, was sponsored by the Money Making Society of Sunshine JoAnn Kriegbaum, chairman of M.M.S., and her co-chairman, Nancy Coyle, helped to make the evening unforgettable in everyone's memory.

Happy couples—Spooky evening!
Craig Diffenbaugh and Nancy Buzzard are all ready for a big evening

AT HALLOWEEN AND SWEETHEART DANCES

Sweetheart Dance

Love was in the air on February 8, 1958, when the Masonic Temple was transformed into a miniature heaven complete with chubby cupids and fluffy clouds. The music of Jimmy Stier's orchestra added the final celestial touch to the scene.

The traditional march through the heart was led by Ann Ade and her escort, Rollo Williams. She was followed by the remaining 134 couples who were given either a blue or white cloud by Miss Nancy Buzzard and Master Craig Diffenbaugh.

The enchanted evening was ended at midnight when the Sweetheart Dance of 1958 became a thing of the past.

Committee chairman—Peggy Beeby, Janet Rice, Martha Hudson, JoAnn Kriegbaum, Nancy Coyle, Judy Fouts, Polly Palmer—pose quietly before the last minute rush to get ready for the dance

At least there's one boy who isn't afraid to fast dance!

The thirsty game crowd always gathers at the coke bar

Someone's always trying to steal the show, isn't he, Mr. Doerscher?

THE EVER POPULAR SWING INN

The smartest "cats" and coolest "chicks" spend their scant leisure time dancing and chatting down at the Swing Inn, which is located in the pink and black basement of the Y.M.C.A. Everyone meets there after sports events and on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday evenings.

This organization has an elected governing body called the Swing Inn Board. Its officers are Suzanne Chalfant, president; Jim Weber, vice-president; Jim Stringfellow, secretary; and Peg Scheiber, of Huntington Catholic, treasurer. The other members from Huntington High School are Mike Thomas, Joyce Lockhart, Jane Poehler, Bill Marks, and Carol Houser. The Huntington Catholic representation consists of Joyce Raney, Tom Pegan, and Pat Mettler.

Mamie and Ed Sunley, with the help of Dorothy and Llewelyn Coates, serve capably and wisely as sponsors and pals.

Everybody rates Swing Inn special events such as Sadie Hawkin's Nite, New Year's Eve Dance, Homecoming Dance, Mistletoe Dance, and Twirp Week as the best ever.

All in all only the "squares" miss out on the Swing Inn fun!

Things never seem to stop jumping as everyone dances away his excess energy

Let's hope it's a slow one, Bill!

. . . PREPARING, PRESENTING, AND PROCLAIMING

Modulus Revue

As the lights dimmed and the velvet curtains parted at 8:00 p.m. on March 19, 20, 21, another spectacular Modulus Revue was born.

The show which included a variety of talent; was kept moving each night by the able master of ceremonies, Phil Schilling.

Of course such a successful production as the 1958 Modulus Revue would not have been possible without the guidance and assistance of many people. The general director of this year's revue was Mrs. Walter Young. Mr. McCabe Day was in charge of ticket sales and the stage crew. The high school orchestra and all other musical entertainment was under the direction of Mr. Cloyde Slater. The unusual and beautiful backdrops for the stage were designed and constructed by Mr. Rudolph Johnson.

As the curtain was lowered on the last act, everyone was again very conscious of the vast amount of talent that is always a part of Huntington High School.

MISS JOYCE WILLIAMS MISS MODULUS

Modulus Queen

The girl who won the honor of being the queen of the 1958 Modulus Revue was Joyce Williams. Joyce competed with Arlene Rickert, Ruth Glass, and Sandra Stetzel for the coveted recognition. The right to wear her crown was gained when she sold 759 tickets to the show.

Joyce is a junior at H. H. S. and lives with her parents, brothers, and sisters at 541 Franklin Street.

An energetic girl of many interests, Joyce particularly enjoys cooking and dancing. A typical evening finds her helping her mother with dinner and then the dishes, watching TV, baby-sitting, or going to the Swing Inn. In warmer weather she enjoys swimming and other outdoor activities. She is also an officer in the G. A. A.

Joyce attends the First Methodist Church where she may be found almost every Sunday.

The entire school was proud to have this wonderful girl as its queen. Congratulations, Joyce!

Senior Play

Are teachers human? This was the question whieh the Senior Class of '58 answered on November 19 and 20, 1957, when they presented the three act comedy, ARE TEACHERS HUMAN?, by James Reaeh.

The play took plaee at Central High School in an average American town. As the story opened, eomplieations between Mr. Fowler, the new young prineipal, and Miss Meadows, the pretty, young English teacher, began immediately. The hilarious situations whieh followed kept the audienee laughing eontinually.

Despite shaking knees and perspiring palms, the east presented the play in a very professional manner. We were very proud of them. We were also very grateful to Mr. Leslie Wilbern, Mr. Dale Ware, and Mr. B. P. McKay for their invaluable assistanee and patienee while eoaehing the play.

We, the Class of 1958, will always remember ARE TEACHERS HUMAN? as a stupendous production!

MODULUS STAFF WORKS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

Everyone likes to receive his yearbook at the end of the school year, but few realize the time and work that is spent by the staff while they are preparing the book.

Our editor, JoAnn Kriegbaum, and her assistant, Carol Houser, were responsible for directing the staff, completing the book on schedule, and making it one of the best yearbooks produced at Huntington High School.

Mrs. Young, our faculty advisor, always managed to have a solution for all our problems.

Mrs. Young, JoAnn Kriegbaum

Judy Fouts, our copy editor, handed out assignments to copy writers—Ann Hiatt, Martha Hudson, Phyllis Johnson, Judy Musser, Clarice Williams, Janet Veatch, Carolee Atkinson, Janet Rice, Jerry Hastings, Carol Houser, Jim Stringfellow, Ruth Glass, Stan Robinson, Barbara Schell, Tom Sands, Carol Butler, Becky Fulton, Dona Howett, Nancy Altman, Ann Burnworth, Anne Marie Goshorn, and Jane Hastings. Phil Schilling, who assisted Judy as sports editor, kept an accurate record of all sports activities. The typing was done by Janet Rice, and Delane Smith.

The bookkeeping department was capably handled by Joyce Lockhart, our business manager.

The advertising staff—Janet Rice, Cary Ambrose, Bob Hamilton, and Rex Baker—under the supervision of Holly Ridgeway, advertising manager, collected ads to finance the book.

Our photographers—Tom Harrell, Gvido Lemke, Cary Ambrose, and Jon Mickley—took, developed, and printed our many pictures.

We of the 1958 Modulus staff have accomplished our goal of presenting a yearbook which we hope you will enjoy and remember always.

The Student Council spent another busy year trying to solve certain problems which arose in the school. One of the big projects which was undertaken by this group was that of solving the "traffic" in the halls. To remedy this problem, a committee was appointed to write up a set of rules which the student body accepted and attempted to follow.

Under the expert guidance of Mr. Goshorn and Mr. Johnson the council sponsored a money-making campaign to raise money for the American Field Service.

The efficient officers for the year were Jim Stringfellow, president; Steve Mower, vice-president; Janet Bragg, secretary; and Stan Robinson, Treasurer.

The eandy business is really booming!

EXCHANGE STUDENTS IMPROVE INTERNATIONAL RFLATIONS

MR. RUDOLPH JOHNSON

RUDOLPH JOHNSON

This year Huntington High School was privileged to have Mr. Rudolph Johnson from Warwick, England, as its exchange teacher in art. He will always be remembered for his walk, his smile, his sincerity, his accent, and his three beautiful Modulus Revue backdrops.

Although his visit was a short one, we shall always remember him as our own "Rudd."

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service is a program that sponsors a student exchange between the United States and thirty-two foreign countries. This year Huntington High School was fortunate to have Vanda Vieira from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, spend the school year with us. During the summer of 1957, Joyce Lockhart, a senior at H. H. S., represented the school on her trip to Skovlunde, Denmark.

BAND CONTINUES TO TURN IN

The Huntington High School Band completed its thirty-second year under its very capable director, Mr. Delmar Weesner.

This year the marching band had twelve high-stepping majorettes who, led by their captain, Judy Musser, paced the drills and formations. Another figure always identified with the marching band was their drum major, Phil Kriegbaum. Phil did a marvelous job as he completed his fourth year in this position.

Something new for the band was a Band Council which consisted of two representatives from each class who met with Mr. Weesner every week to discuss plans which would better the band. Members this year were Mary Ann McNamee, Jane Hastings, Barbara Day, Arlen Paul, Tom McElhaney, Gary Olinger, Steve Michael, and Clarice Williams.

The band played four practice concerts for the grade schools during the year and presented its annual concert of May 4. The ensembles and solos which went to the district and state contests won superior ratings. The band as a whole competed in a eontest held in New Haven, Indiana, on May 19.

CHOIR TAKES CENTER STAGE

The 56 voice a cappella choir of Huntington High is one of the finest organizations in the school. Under the direction of Mr. Cloyde Slater the choir proved itself to be an outstanding choral group.

This year the choir made definite progress toward new robes by selling candy.

The choir was kept busy with the many concerts which have become annual events. A tour of the city schools once each semester was a "must." A public concert was given on the Thursday preceding Christmas. The one day spring tour took the singers to Warsaw, Huntington Township, and North Manchester. On Good Friday the choir provided the religious music for the afternoon services, and they also sang at the Easter Sunrise Service. In their spring concert a variety of music was presented for an appreciative audience. The Swing Choir, boasting twenty members, presented jazz and popular tunes for several receptions and club programs.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY WORKS FOR OTHERS

Ann Ade, Sunshine President, and Miss Alice Kline, Sunshine Sponsor, begin a campaign to sell the delicious Sunshine candy.

To offer help and friendship to other people in our school is the main purpose of the Sunshine Society, which has "Others" as its motto. This organization is composed of all girls in Huntington High School.

The officers for the year were Ann Ade, president; Barbara Schell, vice-president; Joanna Allen, treasurer; Sally Perry, recording secretary, and Connie Hart, corresponding secretary. The officers were ably assisted by the two sponsors, Miss Alice Kline and Mr. Lowell Buzzard.

The society is divided into numerous groups.

Mary White Guild was sponsored by Mrs. Porter, Miss Ellis and Mrs. Poehler. Julia Howett acted as chairman. Their main project was planning the Holy Week Services.

Gales, sponsored by Miss Kline, decorated and sold Easter eggs.

Craft, the needlework guild of Sunshine, was sponsored by Mrs. Miller and Miss Hanson. The committee chose Jean Ann Kaltenmark as their chairman.

Social Service Sunbeams, sponsored by Miss Sees, cheered the sick.

Big and Little Sister, the welcoming committee for the freshmen girls, was sponsored by Miss Kline and headed by Janet Rice.

M.M.S., the money making society, is made up entirely of junior and senior girls. Mr. Buzzard served as their sponsor and JoAnn Kriegbaum was their capable chairman.

FIRST DAD'S NIGHT A SUCCESS

This year the Sunshine Society tried something new when they held a Father-Daughter Banquet. A delicious meal was served to a large group of fathers and daughters while dinner music was played by Becky Fulton.

The enthusiastic gathering was welcomed by Sunshine President, Ann Ade, who asked each girl to introduce her father.

Bonnie Caley, Ruth Glass, and Judy Musser opened the program with an amusing arrangement of "The Three Old Maids from Lynn." The speaker for the evening, Miss Irene Myers, gave an inspiring talk on "Life Is Just a Dutch Treat."

Everyone is looking forward to another successful evening next year.

W.V.S.H., AN INSTRUMENT

"Pop, something's wrong with tape recorder one and that program goes on the air in a few minutes!" is a typical distress call which passes between the intercom in the WVSH Radio Center to the intercom in Mr. McCabe Day's office. Instantly "Pop" is on his way to find the trouble. Generally the solution is simply turning on the right switch.

This year WVSH, under the supervision of Mr. Day and Mrs. McClure, was on the air six hours every school day and broadcast all ball games and many other civic programs.

One of the few school stations of its kind, WVSH is a real help in the classroom and is enjoyed by all.

MASQUE AND GAVEL

This year Masque and Gavel practiced their motto, "Speech for Use." Under the capable leadership of Mrs. John McClure they presented plays, religious programs, and club programs.

Officers were Ruth Glass, president; Joyce Lockhart, religious vice-president; Larry Ulrich, program vice-president; and Gary Olinger, secretary-treasurer.

WOODSHOP FOREMEN

In order to keep the woodshop running efficiently Mr. Burke appoints a foreman each month. This year's foremen were Doug Watkins, Sam Shenefield, Rex Baker, Roger Chambers, Larry Stell, Tom Sands, Larry Kaylor, and Robert Johnston. They helped Mr. Burke by overseeing classes, caring for tools and machines, and replenishing supplies.

Only junior and senior boys who achieve a B average in woodwork are eligible for the position. Each month the foreman for that month was the guest of the Huntington Foremen's Club.

AUDIO-VISUAL

If anyone desires to have a film shown or needs help back stage, he immediately calls on Mr. McCabe Day. "Pop," as the kids affectionately call Mr. Day, then turns to one of his period supervisors for help.

The boys who worked as supervisors this year were Kenny Crawford, Jeff Belding, Don Warner, Porter Payne, Earl Geist, and Tom Mullis. After serving with "Pop" for at least two years, these boys are given a letter in appreciation for their service.

SECRETARIES

An important part of the Audio-Visual Department is the group of secretaries who work in Mr. Day's office. These girls do typing, duplication, and filing work. The girls who served in this capacity this year were Janet Derr, Donna Kaster, Sandy Greider, Sharon Foraker, Rose Holtrey, Janice Carroll, Barbara Walker, Judy Grimes, Clarice Williams, Phyllis Johnson, and Kay Fisher.

F.T.A.

The Future Teachers of America is an organization for students who are interested in the teaching profession. The members spent some time during the semester doing practice teaching in the elementary schools.

The club was headed by Dona Gemmer, president; Rolland Smith, vice-president; Richard Wire, secretary-treasurer; and Carolee Atkinson, program chairman. Mr. Wilbern served as their capable sponsor.

ACTUARIE

Actuarie is composed of student librarians. These are the girls who help students in the library find such unusual words as Platyrrhine and antidisestablishmentarianism.

The officers for the 1957-58 school year were Suzanne Chalfant, president; Polly Palmer, vice-president; and Phyllis Johnson, secretary-treasurer. Miss Carolyn Reynolds is the club sponsor.

The highlights of the year were a get-acquainted picnic, a Christmas caroling party, and a spring reception honoring the mothers of the members.

JUNIOR ROTARY

Each school month a senior boy is chosen to be Junior Rotarian. These boys are picked on the basis of character, citizenship, leadership, and personality. Every Tuesday for one month the Junior Rotarian is the guest of the Rotary Club where he enjoys an excellent meal and program. The boys chosen this year were: October, Gvido Lemke; November, John Ziegler; December, Tom Sands; January, Phil Schilling; February, Jerry Hastings; March, Jim Weber; April, Stan Robinson; May, Jim Stringfellow.

An extremely interesting year was enjoyed by all who participated in Sophomore Tri Hi Y The main events of the year were a bake sale and a "splash" party.

Officers were Monica Kneller, president; Nancy Maxton, vice-president; Janet Burkhart, secretary; Pat Cook, treasurer; and Marcea Landis, chaplain. Mrs. Jack Nye was the sponsor.

FRESHMAN TRI HI Y

This year's Freshman Tri Hi Y had an eventful year. Their many activities included panel discussions, bake sales, and "splash" parties.

The officers were Glenda Oxley, president; Diana Hammel, vice-president; Dianne Howell, secretary; Sharon Elick, treasurer; and Patty Weaver, chaplain. Miss Pat Kyle sponsored the group.

G. A. A.

To become a member of the Girls' Athletic Association, a girl must earn 100 points in various sports activities. Membership is maintained by earning a minimum of 25 points in organized activities during each year. When a member has earned 250 points, she is awarded an "H"; and after earning 350 points, she receives a state wall plaque.

COUNCILING

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

Each student at H. H. S. is assisted in solving his problems by a class advisor. These helpful counselors are also on hand to plan each person's four year schedule. Counselors and their assistants this year were Mrs. Hillegas, Janet Hubley, and Eva DeBord, seniors; Mr. Diffenbaugh and Janice Smith, juniors; Mrs. Miller, Mary Chambers, and Julia Howett, sophomores; and Mr. Burke and Dona Gemmer, freshmen.

SERVICES AID STUDENTS IN SCHOOL LIFE

Mrs. Poehler and Mrs. Mann are two of the busiest people in the school system. Mrs. Mann, the school nurse, is in charge of maintaining the health of the students. Mrs. Poehler's duty is to check on the prolonged absence of any pupil. They have both fulfilled their duties very efficiently.

Mrs. Poehler, Mrs. Mann

ATTENDANCE DEPARTMENT

The Attendance Department is headed by Mrs. Porter, Dean of Girls, and Mr. Gerdes, Dean of Boys. Their work includes recording tardiness, collecting and filing absentee excuses, and making up attendance sheets. Mr. Gerdes is also in charge of the testing program and other related matters.

Mrs. Porter, Mr. Gerdes

ATTENDANCE HELPERS

Mrs. Porter and Mr. Gerdes, the heads of the Attendance Department, were capably assisted in their daily work by several students. The girls who kept records and make absentee reports this year were Judy Cook, Janet Bragg, and Ruth Jordan in the Boys' office and Sandy Yarger and Marlene Ross in the Girls' office.

"H" CLUB

The members of the "H" Club have all reeeived at least one major letter in some sport. This year the club wrote a new eonstitution which set down the rules and by-laws of the organizations. They also hung some excellent sports pietures in first floor hall.

This year's offieers were Tom Sands, president; Jim Weber, viee-president; and Mike Thomas, secretary-treasurer. Sponsors for the club were Mr. Myers and Mr. Wilhelm.

BOOSTER CLUB

The name of the Booster Club suggest its purpose—to boost the Vikings! The elub strives toward its goals through the following aetivities: printing football and basketball program, organizing buses to games which are out of town, and sponsoring two free buses a year.

The offieers this year were Stan Robinson, president; Bill Marks, viee-president; and Holly Ridgeway, secretary-treasurer. The sponsors—Mr. Myers, Mr. Goshorn, Mr. Wilhelm, and Mr. Naab —smoothed out diffieulties and played a very important part in the sueeessful year which the elub enjoyed.

CHEERING BLOCK IS MODEL OF SPORTSMANSHIP

"Huntington Vikings Fight!" was the familiar cheer that rang throughout the Community Gymnasium as the 143 members of the cheering block backed their Vikings. Whether the girls were wearing the traditional black and red shirts or white blouses, their encouraging voices could always be heard above the crowd.

VIKES WELCOME NEW SKIPPER

Hailing from Westfield, Indiana, Coach Charles (Wave) Myers arrived on the scene this fall just in time to begin the practice sessions at Kriegbaum Field. Three weeks before the first big game of the season Coach Myers had the boys hustling with anticipation of whipping the Marion Giants. The drill sessions were characterized by the Go! Go! Go! spirit and amiable attitude that made Wave Myers not only a real winner with the players but also a winner with the entire student body.

SHIP'S MATES

Backing up the new Vike Helmsman this year were the three old faithfuls—Carl Seely, Oscar Nabb, and Ivan Wilhelm. "Doc" Seely spent most of the football season showing the up-and-coming freshmen how it's to be done. Oscar Naab served as line coach for the varsity forward wall. Ivan Wilhelm worked with the backfield and helped them devise and perfect all sorts of shifty and sneaky plays.

With more than a half dozen sophomore gridders on the varsity this year, the remainder of the second year crew found tough going in the open stages of the schedule. Under the careful direction of Oscar Naab the "B" Team gathered steam as the final games were played. Everyone is looking forward to next year when these boys will show their stuff on the varsity.

"B" TEAM AND FROSH FINISH SEASON IN HIGH GEAR

Thirteen and zero must have been the Frosh's numbers for this pigskin year. After deadlocking with Peru the Freshmen tripped up Wabash, 13-0. Wabash, however, turned the tables in a rematch, 13-0. Marion slipped by a scoreless Huntington, but New Haven wasn't that lucky as the Frosh downed them—yes, 13-0.

INTRODUCING IVAN

As soon as the football season ended with the storing of shoulder pads and helmets, Ivan Wilhelm was busy pulling out gym shoes and thumbing through his scorebook. The Vikes were short on time before the opener with Columbia City, and everyone was working overtime—coaches included. The pace didn't slack off during the winter months, and the "Kaiser" had his hands full both on the hardwood and in the classroom. Wilhelm came through in fine style—after all, he's an old Vike!

NORSE CAGERS OFF TO A FLYING START

WATERBOYS

During the hardcourt play the cries of "Where's my warm-up jacket? Who stole my shoes? Where's the tape?" inevitably were heard. The fellows who got the warm-up jackets, found the shoes, and grabbed the tape, along with a million other duties were Bob Hamilton and Wendel Law. What would a team do without them?

DOC AND WAVE SHOW THE WAY UP

One man can't possibly manage all this basketball business, so the Vikes have a couple of supporting coaches that show the up-and-coming Norsemen the road to the varsity. Doc Goshorn piloted the Scyds through a sparkling season, while Wave Myers turned in a fine record in his first year as Freshman Basketball Coach.

KAISER'S KIDS - - - 1957-58 EDITION

Another chapter of Huntington High basketball was recorded in athletic annals this year—the 1957-58 hardwood edition. It read something like this. The Vikings proved to be quick starters as they whipped Columbia City in the opener. Warsaw proved to be too much for the Vikes, but the following week Peru fell before Huntington. Alex, South Side, Wabash, Hartford City, Bluffton, and Muncie Burris all managed to edge the Vikes in thrilling contests. The Vikings nailed down third spot in the Holiday Tournament as they lost to North Side of Fort Wayne, but downed Wabash. Back once again in regular play the Norse took it on the chin from Marion and Elwood. Then they bounced back into action as they cruised past Decatur, North Manchester, and Tipton. The tide turned for the Red and Black as Plymouth, Logansport, Auburn, and Rochester succeeded in routing the Vikes. In the Sectional Tournament Huntington gunned its way into the championship game, only to slip into defeat in the closing stages of a hard-fought contest. As we look back upon 1957-58 we'll not forget them—Web, String, Sands, Snake, Buzz, Pogo, Sam, Handy, Kenny, the two Mikes, and Big Bill—the Varsity Vikes.

VIKE CHEERLEADERS CONTRIBUTE EXTRA PEP

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The jumping, jiving acrobats that were seen doing their "stuff" at the football and basketball games this year were Judy Musser, Polly Palmer, and Jean Musser.

Whether there were six or six hundred fans to back the Vikings, the girls could be found at every game, home or away.

These girls led our school in sportsmanship which has been unequaled in the last few years, and we want to say "Thanks!" for a job well done.

Good Luck Vikes!

SCYDLINGS BREEZE THROUGH A STIFF SCHEDULE

The Scydlings rolled along this season for eight straight games without a single hitch, and wound up the season with an "above-par" 15-5 record. That's not to say that there weren't some real battles. For instance, the Scyds had their hands full when the Wabash Papooses (?) made a last minute rally. —And who can forget that thrilling game with Elwood when the Scydlings went into the lead in the closing seconds. In fact, the Scyds almost outdid themselves for several members of the squad were juggled around with the varsity throughout the year. Eventually, both Ron Handwork and Kenny Tewel earned their berths on the first-string line-up. Despite the trading and trading, the Scyds kept their winning ways while eying the future with eagerness.

FRESHMEN FINISH WITH WINNING SPURT

The first-year crew chalked up a total of 11 wins and 7 losses on the hardwood this year. The Freshmen, playing together for the first time, started slowly; but finished the season in the win column downing 8 teams in a row. With plenty experience and confidence behind them, everyone looks forward to next year as these boys move to the B-Team.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Soon after the fall term started, the seniors began considering whom they should elect to guide them through the decisions of their final year. They wanted officers who were dependable, competent, and who would be good leaders. The students whom they elected were: John Ziegler, president; Tom Sands, vice-president; Polly Palmer, secretary; and Judy Musser, treasurer. These officers have fit the qualifications perfectly, and they have successfully led the class through the routine and rush of senior life.

SENIOR SPONSORS

No senior class could ever be a success without its sponsors. The Senior Class of 1958 were fortunate to have Mr. Dale Ware and Mr. Leslie Wilbern as their class advisors. These two wonderful men patiently withstood the panic and confusion of the senior play and graduation. They will long be remembered by the seniors as the steadying figures for a year of chaos.

The five, capable officers in charge of the Juniors this year were Mike Thomas, president; Bill Watrous, vice-president; Joan Myers, secretary; Barbara Schell, treasurer; and Ewing Potts, concession manager. This quintette hustled, bustled, and planned so that the Junior Class could prepare a wonderful Junior-Senior Reception for the illustrious seniors who wear the yellow cord pants and skirts.

JUNIOR OFFICERS AND SPONSORS WORK, WORK, WORK

Two familiar faces which were seen around the Junior Class concession stand this year were the class sponsors, Miss Jennie B. Wilson and Mr. Robert Diffenbaugh, better known to the juniors as "Jennie B." and "Diffie." It was no uncommon sight to see "Diffie" carrying empty coke cases to the storage room and Jennie B. preparing hot dogs by the thousands. Without their able guidance and assistance the juniors could never have raised their necessary "millions."

MR. BURTON STEPHAN

Superintendent

Mr. Burton Stephan has been superintendent of the Huntington Public Schools for the last seventeen years. He is a quiet, prompt, and efficient man with a deep interest in school matters. He is appreciated for the thought, time, and energy which he has put forth to provide the students of Huntington with the excellent school system that they have today.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDS FOR

MR. HAROLD JOHNSON

Principal

Huntington High School is fortunate to have Mr. Harold Johnson as its principal. He arranges all class schedules and coordinates the various school activities. In spite of his consuming schedule he also teaches a class in American History. Although he is always busy, he has time to chat with the students and try to help them in every way possible.

Mr. Milton Marx

Mrs. Heinz Bostel

Mr. Dale Updike

HUNTINGTON'S FUTURE LEADERS

Our School Board, elected by the City Council for a term of three years, establishes policies for our school system. Mr. Stephan, Superintendent, carries out the executive duties of the school system, with the Board serving as an advisory committee. The present members are Dale Updike, president; Mrs. Heinz Bostel, treasurer; and Milton Marx, secretary.

Miss Fredith Langley, the Superintendent's secretary, is constantly busy with her numerous jobs which keep the whole school system in order. She has just completed her twentieth year in this position.

The best adjective to describe the H. H. S. office girls is busy. From morning till night Miss Nedra Byrd and Miss Sally Shroyer are constantly busy with a schedule which includes bookkeeping, typing, answering phones, assisting new students, selling game tickets, and answering innumerable student questions. Their work is certainly appreciated and necessary for the smooth running of our high school.

MAINTENANCE

The maintenance men are always at work behind the scenes keeping Huntington High School in the best condition possible. The custodians this year were Robert Pollack, Charles Thompson, Robert Swearer, and chief custodian, Paul Minniear. These men have given H.H.S. a reputation of being one of the most attractive and best maintained buildings in the state.

CAFETERIA EMPLOYEES

Under the direction of our dietitian, Mrs. Doyle Smith, the women who work so diligently in the cafeteria are Mrs. Theodore Bond, Mrs. J. L. Motz, Mrs. Meredith Dolby, and Mrs. Lewis Knight. After Mrs. Smith has arranged the menu, these busy women each fix a certain part of the delicious meal which is served to the hungry student body every day.

Everyone wishes to express a sincere thank you for the fine job that these women are doing.
